

I support the Petition of the ARRL insofar as consolidation of the license classes. I do not support refarming of the subbands. Reducing the number of license classes does not justify a conclusion that the bandwidth available for international morse code operation should be lessened. There is a very real need to retain the current bandwidth permitted for code operation, which already is quite crowded.

Raymond G. Smith